

Diane Anderson

My judging career began in Norway in 1975 when I became a licensed FCI judge...before becoming an American Kennel Club judge. My first Alaskan Malamute appointment was in 1979. Hard to believe that it was 40 years ago! Through those years I have judged the breed in 10 countries on four continents which include Australia, Canada, Colombia, Denmark, Finland, Ireland, New Zealand, Norway, Sweden and the USA. Some of my favorite memories are judging a specialty in the USA with an entry of 94, the Norwegian Specialty in 1986 with 34 entered and the Alaskan Malamute Club of America Regional Specialty in 2016. I have judged the breed at the Stockholm International Show in 2005 and 2008.

I have judged all breed shows around the world in the following countries: Australia, Brazil, Canada, Colombia, Denmark, England, Finland, Germany, Gibraltar, Iceland, India, Ireland, Japan, Luxembourg, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Scotland, Sweden, Switzerland and the USA.

Personally I have bred and owned Old English Sheepdogs since 1969. My lines have produced champions throughout Scandinavia and in Australia, Canada and the USA.

I am honored to be judging your specialty and look forward to many beautiful and functional dogs...always keeping in mind that form follows function.
